Immigration: Holy Cross Ministries is dedicated to helping immigrant families participate in the community and gain self-sufficiency. Recognizing that there are limited accessible resources for low-income families in Utah, The Legal Immigration Program coordinates the only pro-bono asylum services in the state; runs Utah's first and largest U-Visa program for victims of crime; and has helped over 10,000 men, women and children gain some type of legal status since opening in 2000. In 2017, 2,285 individuals received legal immigration services.

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 590,299 including grants of$ 3,686) (Revenue $)

Holy Cross Ministries focuses on making an impact on youth developmental assets that help young people grow up healthy, caring, and responsible; which leads to better academic gains. Promotora: Many Hispanics in Utah face critical risk factors with regards to their health- they are often unfamiliar with local health care and food supplement options, and many fear discrimination. Recognizing the needs of this population, Holy Cross Ministries' Promotoras - bilingual, bicultural outreach workers - strive to ensure that all families are healthy, safe, and can navigate complex health and social systems. The Promotoras have been characterized as "bridge builders". They play a central role in community integration and are key to every program at Holy Cross Ministries. In 2017, the promotoras helped 1,362 individuals.

Form 990 - Organization's Mission

Holy Cross Ministries of Utah is committed to responding to the underserved community's need for health and well-being. We share God-given resources, connect people to community services, and assist individuals and families toward independence and full participation in the community. In 2017 we served nearly 4,000 individuals and families, teaching them to navigate complex systems, achieve an education, and create safe and healthy environments.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d - All Other Accomplishment

Counseling:

Low income, uninsured families rarely have access to mental health services so the need is significant. HCMU worked to address this need by providing a counseling program at three Catholic Salt Lake schools servicing 1,000 children and their families. The primary aim was to recognize and address the emotional needs of students who are affected by stress, bullying, violence or abuse, grief or other common youth issues. Regular classes were provided to help prevent bullying and promote healthy lifestyles for students.

Parish/Community Health:

In Utah the Latino population faces unique challenges in accessing health care, including transportation, language and cultural barriers and socioeconomic difficulties. Our Promotora Health Program is determined to help poor and vulnerable individuals access the health care they need through health care education.

Jameson Family Scholarship:

The Jameson Family Scholarship in the amount of $3,500 provided funds for 1 student at the University of Utah in need of financial assistance.

Students who receive the Jameson Family Scholarship are committed to both their education and service in their communities. The goal of the Jameson Family Scholarship is to provide college access to as many students as possible, particularly those who are restrited from access to other sources of funding despite their accomplishments.

PC Tots:

In 2016 Holy Cross Ministries restructured the School Readiness Program, which previously served at-risk minority three-to five-year-old children. With this transition, it was understood that there would be four-and five-year-old students previously served by HCM who would need a new education service provider. It was understood that some four-year-old students would not be eligible for any of the district programs. In order to help support families with children transitioning from HCM's program who did not qualify for another district option, HCM provided limited scholarship funding for who enrolled in PC Tots, an early childcare development center in Park City with a fee based program.
